

The Council for Northeast Historical Archaeology
18th Annual Student Paper Competition
STUDENT COMPETITION REGISTRATION FORM
Newark, Delaware, November 8-10, 2013

Graduate and undergraduate students* are invited to submit abstracts for twenty-minute, single-author papers on any topic related to historical archaeology in the northeastern United States and the eastern provinces of Canada. Papers will be judged by a panel of scholars to be drawn from the fields of historical archaeology and anthropology, history, material culture, and American Studies. Students are required to present their papers at the meeting on Saturday, November 9, and submit a copy of the finished paper, with references, in advance of the conference, to Nancy Brighton at njbrighton@yahoo.com not later than October 1, 2013. Students must still submit their registration and abstract by the deadline below to participate in the Conference. The judges will base their decision on the content of the paper, the student's presentation, and contribution to the field of historical archaeology. The winner will receive a certificate of award, a cash prize, a year's membership in CNEHA and publication of their paper in Northeast Historical Archaeology.

Competition guidelines can be found on the CNEHA website:
